The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

主禱文

我們在天上的父，願人都尊父的名為聖。願父的國降臨。願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。又求饒恕我們的罪，因為我們饒恕得罪我們的人。不叫我們遇見試探，拯救我們脫離兇惡；因為國度、權柄、榮耀、全是父的，直到永遠。阿們。

174th California-Nevada Annual Conference Session | JUNE 10TH-13TH, 2022

LET LOVE BE

Romans Chapter 12

The annual conference is the basic body in The United Methodist Church and sessions of the annual conference have historically been a time for the people called Methodists to gather, give account to God of the work they have done and their stewardship of the resources God has given them since they last met.

It has also been a holy time to discern God's will for their future, a time when persons called to ordained ministry are commissioned and ordained, and both clergy and lay personnel and financial resources are deployed for ministry.

Above all, annual conference sessions have been connectional gatherings where the gathered have experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit and have been revived for God's holy work.

Annual conferences are geographically defined and each year, across the denomination, the clergy members of the conference meet with at least an equal number of lay members in their annual conference session for worship, fellowship, and to conduct the business of the conference, which may last three to five days. The area bishop presides over these meetings. This will be the 174th session of the California-Nevada Annual Conference.

US Annual Conferences Can't Just Leave the United Methodist Church, Rules Top Court

Emily McFarlan Miller • May 11, 2022

No, an annual conference in the United States can't just up and leave the United Methodist Church. At least not yet.

The decision by the Judicial Council, the denomination's top court, comes just over a week after the launch of the Global Methodist Church, a new denomination formed by theologically conservative Methodists.

It also comes ahead of annual conferences' yearly meetings, which take place in May and June.

At least two annual conferences—Northwest Texas and South Georgia—were set to consider resolutions to disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church at their meetings this summer, the Judicial Council noted in its decision. The Northwest Texas Annual Conference also approved a nonbinding resolution last year indicating it planned to leave the United Methodist Church for a conservative denomination should the General Conference pass a proposed Protocol of Reconciliation and Grace through Separation, according to United Methodist News Service.

Bulgaria-Romania Bishop Patrick Streiff has requested the Judicial Council rule on whether an annual conference in one of the denomination's central conferences—including those in Europe, Africa and the Philippines—has the authority to vote to separate from the United Methodist Church. That question remains on the council's spring docket.

Keith Boyette, who chairs the Transitional Leadership Council of the Global Methodist Church and will step into the role of its chief executive next month, told Religion News Service he was "very disappointed" by the Judicial Council decision.

The ruling, he said, will lead to the kind of litigation the 16 United Methodist bishops and advocacy group leaders who negotiated a proposed Protocol of Reconciliation and Grace through Separation—including Boyette—had hoped to avoid. Now churches and annual conferences potentially will challenge the denomination's trust clause, which maintains that the denomination—not the churches or their conferences—own church properties, he said.

"We have worked so hard to have a different witness to the world," said Boyette, referencing the challenges faced by other denominations that have split over differing beliefs about the ordination and marriage of LGBTQ members.
